

MEZZELUNE

Pasta, Missy Robbins

REST

45 minutes to 1 hour uncovered in the refrigerator

DETAILS

- Dough: egg-dough
- Region: Across Italy, most concentrated in the Alps and over the border into German-speaking neighbors

METHOD

1. Make your chosen egg-based dough, then roll and sheet it.
2. Dust a wooden board with 00 flour. Cover a sheet pan with parchment, then dust the parchment with semolina.
3. Lay one sheet on the board. Cut rounds with a #70 (2 3/4-inch) fluted pastry cutter, leaving 1/8 inch between them.
4. Load the filling into a pastry bag cut to a 1/2-inch opening. Pipe a quarter-sized dab of filling into the middle of each round.
5. If the dough feels dry rather than tacky, mist the rounds with a spray bottle held 8 to 10 inches above the board. Skip this if the dough is already tacky.
6. Hold a round in your palm and fold the top half over the bottom half, lining up the edges, to make a half-moon.
7. Pinch the edge shut around the filling with thumb and index finger. Work back and forth a few times and push all the air out.
8. Set the piece on the prepared pan. Fill and fold the rest of the rounds, keeping them in a single layer, and dust the pan again with semolina.
9. Do the same with the remaining sheets.
10. Refrigerate uncovered for 45 minutes to 1 hour to dry. Covered pieces sweat and get too wet. To hold longer, lay plastic wrap loosely over the pan and refrigerate up to 8 hours.

NOTES

Cut from 2 3/4-inch rounds (#70 cutter), spaced 1/8 inch apart on the sheet.

Filling per piece: a quarter-sized circle piped through a 1/2-inch opening.

Seal geometry: a single fold into a half-moon and a pinched edge, with the air pushed out. Nothing else. It is among the easiest filled shapes to learn.

Cutter choice is the only stylistic variable besides the filling. A fluted cutter is preferred for the look.

Functionally a subgenre of ravioli sealed as a half-moon. Schlutzkräpfen in Alto Adige and casunziei in the Veneto are the same idea under other names.

Storage: 45 minutes to 1 hour uncovered to dry, then up to 8 hours refrigerated under loose plastic.

Sauced any way you like. Best used when the filling is bold and does not need the interior volume that ravioli offer.
