INGREDIENTS

227 g	butter
57 g	confectioners' sugar
7 ml	vanilla extract
5 ml	almond extract (optional)
5 g	salt
72 g	almond flour
270 g	flour

METHOD

- Before starting:
- Preheat oven to 325°F.
- Lightly grease or line two baking sheets with parchment.
- In a large bowl, beat together butter, sugar, vanilla, almond extract, and salt until smooth.
- Beat in almond flour, then flour, until just combined.
- Scoop chestnut-sized (1") pieces of dough and roll into balls. A level teaspoon cookie scoop works perfectly.
- Place balls on prepared baking sheets, leaving 1" between them.
- Bake for 15-20 minutes until set on top. Some may start to barely brown around edges.
- While baking, put coating sugar in a shallow bowl.
- Remove from oven, cool on pan for a few minutes.
- Transfer 5-6 cookies at a time to bowl with sugar. Roll to coat evenly.
- Transfer to rack to cool completely.
- Roll in sugar again when cool for thorough snowy-white coating.
- Store airtight at room temperature for several days; freeze for longer storage.

NOTES

If using salted butter, reduce added salt to 1/2 teaspoon.
Also known as Russian Teacakes, or Vanilla Snowballs.
For extra tender texture, use almond flour or finely ground blanched almonds.
Roll twice in sugar - once warm, once cool - for the classic snowy appearance.
