INGREDIENTS

| | |
|---|---|
| 227 g | Butter |
| 57 g | Confectioners' sugar |
| 7 ml | Vanilla extract |
| 5 ml | Almond extract, optional |
| 5 g | Salt |
| 72 g | Almond flour |
| 270 g | Flour |

METHOD

1. Before starting:
2. Preheat oven to 325°F.
3. Lightly grease or line two baking sheets with parchment.
4. In a large bowl, beat together butter, sugar, vanilla, almond extract, and salt until smooth.
5. Beat in almond flour, then flour, until just combined.
6. Scoop chestnut-sized (1") pieces of dough and roll into balls. A level teaspoon cookie scoop works perfectly.
7. Place balls on prepared baking sheets, leaving 1" between them.
8. Bake for 15-20 minutes until set on top. Some may start to barely brown around edges.
9. While baking, put coating sugar in a shallow bowl.
10. Remove from oven, cool on pan for a few minutes.
11. Transfer 5-6 cookies at a time to bowl with sugar. Roll to coat evenly.
12. Transfer to rack to cool completely.
13. Roll in sugar again when cool for thorough snowy-white coating.
14. Store airtight at room temperature for several days; freeze for longer storage.

NOTES

If using salted butter, reduce added salt to 1/2 teaspoon.
Also known as Russian Teacakes, or Vanilla Snowballs.
For extra tender texture, use almond flour or finely ground blanched almonds.
Roll twice in sugar - once warm, once cool - for the classic snowy appearance.
