filling for 1 large empanada	20 min	160 °C, 40 to 50 min	$2.75 (50 min bake plus 30 min, 3.5 kW at 59 cents/kWh)

DETAILS

- Cook: 35 min sofrito

INGREDIENTS

	Atún or bonito, drained: 100 g (the RTVE figure; go up to 300 g for a fuller filling)
4	Onions
1	Red pepper
1	Tomato
200 g	Tomato sauce
1	Garlic clove
1	Bay leaf
200 ml	Extra virgin olive oil
50 ml	Albariño wine
12 threads	Saffron
quantity not given	Sweet pimentón
to taste	Salt
1/2 tbsp	Food colouring

METHOD

1. Start the base: into hot oil go the garlic, the onion in julienne, the red pepper in strips and the bay leaf.
2. Sweat briefly, add the pimentón and the colouring, then cook 15 min over low heat.
3. Add the tomato in strips and the tomato sauce, then stir in the saffron.
4. Add the albariño and reduce until dry, roughly 20 min, until the moisture is gone.
5. Strain the sofrito and keep the aromatic oil for the dough or for brushing.
6. Cool it, and once cold mix in the flaked tuna before assembling.

NOTES

The sofrito has to be reduced dry and then fully cold before the tuna goes in, so it stays juicy rather than drying out. Reducing the wine and tomato for a full 20 min is the critical step against a raw, soggy base.
Use the sofrito oil, carrying saffron, pimentón and bay, for the dough or for brushing.
The tuna quantity is faithful to RTVE at 100 g. Against 4 onions that is short on fish, so it can go up to around 300 g.
Gentle, long bake at 160 °C for 40 to 50 min, then a 30 min rest before cutting.
Saffron plus pimentón is the colour and aroma signature of this empanada.
Written for the dough on the same RTVE page, a butter-enriched wheat and corn dough: trigo-maiz-olleros. Not the corn and rye masa de maíz.
