AUBERGINE AND RICOTTA FILLING

INGREDIENTS

1	Aubergine
40 g	Ricotta
40 g	Parmesan
quantity not given	Shallot
quantity not given	Basil
quantity not given	Rock salt, for roasting the aubergine
quantity not given	Vinegar, for the optional overnight marinade

METHOD

1. Wrap the aubergine in foil with rock salt and roast it for 1 hour at 180 C.
2. Dice the flesh and dry it out in a pan.
3. Mix the dried aubergine with the ricotta, Parmesan, shallot and basil.
4. Pipe onto the pasta.

NOTES

Used in Aubergine Ravioli with Sicilian Red Prawns.
No sub-components.
Drying the aubergine out completely is the step the source flags. Wet flesh ruins the texture once the cheese goes in.
Shallot and basil carry no quantities, and the rock salt is a roasting bed rather than a measured seasoning.
The source's tip suggests marinating the aubergine in vinegar overnight for extra flavour, with no quantity and no place in the sequence. The recipe's stated "2 hours + overnight" prep is the dough rest.
The 150 g smoked scamorza is a siphoned sauce foam, the 12 red prawns a grilled garnish, and the 50 ml reduced prawn bisque a sauce. All three are outside this file.
