CROQUETAS DE POLLO, ARGUIÑANO STYLE

YIELD	ACTIVE TIME	REST
~25 croquetas	30 min	4 h (overnight is better)

INGREDIENTS

250 g	Cooked or roast chicken, shredded
1	Medium onion, chopped
60 g	Butter
60 g	Flour
600 ml	Whole milk
2 tbsp	Extra virgin olive oil
to taste	Salt, white pepper, nutmeg (optional)
2	Eggs (for coating)
as needed	Flour and breadcrumbs (for coating)
as needed	Mild oil for frying

METHOD

1. Sweat the onion in the butter and oil until translucent, then add the chicken and cook briefly.
2. Dust in the flour, stir 2 min, and add the milk gradually until the bechamel is thick enough to pull away from the pan.
3. Transfer to a tray, cover to the surface, cool, and refrigerate at least 4 h. Overnight is better.
4. Shape and coat in flour, egg and breadcrumbs. Coat twice for a heavier crust.
5. Fry at about 175 °C in small batches, roughly 3 min a side, until golden. Drain.

NOTES

Roux 1:1 (60 g flour : 60 g butter : 600 ml milk), stated by the source as thick enough to pull away from the pan.
This is the canonical leftovers croqueta. It works with roast chicken or with chicken pulled out of a cocido.
Double coating for a thicker, crunchier crust.
175 °C in small batches so the oil temperature holds.
Chill the mass properly before shaping.
